

Jason Allen

Senior Vice President, Lending & Account Resolution
Belco Community Credit Union

Jason Allen serves as Senior Vice President, Lending & Account Resolution for Belco Community Credit Union. Through his nearly 30 years of financial industry experience, he remains inspired by helping members reach their financial goals. Jason believes, if approached correctly, lending can allow members to consolidate bills and focus their energies on saving money.

Strategically overseeing Lending & Account Resolution allows Jason to guide Belco in its mission; We Believe In Every Person, Every Dream, Every Time. Through his leadership, Belco consistently implements the best strategy and the most convenient ways to deliver loan products in a safe and sound manner.

With an extensive background spanning many different leadership roles and responsibilities throughout Belco, Jason's experience in Marketing, IT and Call Center Operations have provided him with a global view of the organization. Most notably, working to remove barriers and silos that can exist within a departmental bubble mindset.

Jason holds a Bachelor of the Arts Degree from Rutgers University (Communication/Political Science). He is currently working toward a master's degree in Strategic Management and Executive Leadership through Penn State World Campus and is a graduate of CUNA Management School (Certified Credit Union Executive (CCUE) and Credit Union Certified Marketing Executive (CUCME)). Jason has served in his community in a myriad of ways as he embraces the credit union mantra of people helping people in every aspect of his life. He is active in his church and serves on the board for the Boys and Girls Club of Harrisburg.
